

TBG Partners merges with Vernon Henry

November 3, 2008

TBG Partners has acquired Houston urban land planning firm Vernon G. Henry & Associates.

Financial terms of the deal were not disclosed.

Henry & Associates was formed in 1967 by Mary Lou and Vernon Henry. Both will stay active in the firm, according to Earl Broussard, founder and president of TBG Partners, an Austin landscape architecture and planning firm.

The company's employees will be relocating to TBG's Houston office on Post Oak Boulevard to increase TBG's staff to 35.

The addition of Henry & Associates gives TBG expanded offerings such as comprehensive city and regional planning, site selection and land use analysis.

-----
Kit Webster, the director of Business Turnaround and Restructuring Services, Bridgepoint Consulting, provided strategic advisory services to TBG Partners on this acquisition.